

I am based at nearby ASH. While the vast majority of my flying takes place during the hourse of 6AM until midnight, I have had the opportunity to depart IFR (2-3 times per year) prior to 6AM, before the Nashua Tower opens. Manchester Approach provides the ATC services I appreciate at that hour. I would be minimally, but negatively, affected by the lack of those services during those hours.